UCLA FOOTBALL '79

THE GOLDEN YEAR: HISTORY OF UCLA

When UCLA moved into its new four-building campus at Westwood in 1929, the site really wasn't much to look at. As one university official remembers it, "They were still cultivating tomatoes on the lower reaches of the campus, and there was a little scrubby grass on the rest of it."

The first four buildings, however, were a noble beginning, especially since one of them was the elegantly Romanesque Royce Hall and the other the turreted Powell Library. These buildings on two sides of the main quad still attract admiration, and Royce is the center of the university's celebration of the Golden Year, the 50th at Westwood.

A glimpse of the future had been offered by the first provost of UCLA (then known as the Southern Branch), Ernest Carroll Moore, who said, "We shall look back with amazement upon the development of this University, for it is certain to be greater, far greater, than the imagination of any of us can foresee."

The fulfillment of Dr. Moore's prophecy has come about in an unusually short time, as universities' lives go. In the half century now being celebrated in the Golden Year (plus the 10 years before the move to Westwood) UCLA has risen into the rarefied academic atmosphere occupied by a handful of U.S. institutions.

UCLA's youth becomes readily apparent when its founding date of 1919 is compared to those of the nine other "leading" institutions among the ten determined by a recent survey for the educational magazine, Change; (in alphabetical order): Columbia (1754), Harvard (1636), Massachusetts Institute of Technology (1861), Princeton (1746), Stanford (1885), U.C. Berkeley (1868), UCLA (1919), University of Chicago (1890), University of Michigan (1817) and Yale (1701).

Part of UCLA's phenomenal growth had already taken place when the move was made to Westwood. The school had become a four-year institution in 1924 and had changed its name to UCLA in 1927.

On the new campus, growth seemed to accelerate. Studies on the graduate level, considered an essential part of any major university, began with the authoriza-

THE 1979 BRUINS

RETURNING VETERANS — 43 returning lettermen from the 1978 team that went 8-3-1, finished 12th on the UPI poll and 14th on AP, was second in the first season of the Pac-10 Conference, and tied Arkansas, 10-10, in the Christmas Day Fiesta Bowl at Tempe, Ariz. That was UCLA's third different bowl appearance in four years, including the 1976 Rose Bowl, the next season's Liberty Bowl and the Fiesta Bowl. Added to last year's veterans are Center Brent Boyd, an 11-game starter, and two-letter Winner Ron Wollard, a left guard, back from the '77 season following foot and knee surgery, respectively. Returnees include: Offense – 1 split end, 3 tight ends, 4 tackles, 4 guards, 3 centers, 1 quarterback, 4 running backs and 2 flankerbacks. Defense – 4 tackles, 4 inside linebackers, 1 nose guard, 4 outside linebackers, 4 cornerbacks, 3 safetymen, plus 2 place kickers and 1 punter. Of the returnees, the following started 1978 games: Offense — Larry Lee, lg, 12; Michael Brant, fl, 12; Rick Bashore, qb, 11; Jim Main, rg, 10; Curt Mohl, rt, 5; Dave Otey, c, 4; Dokie Williams, se, 1; Luis Sharpe, rg, 1; Ron Davis, rg, 1; Tim Wrightmen, te, 1. Defense – Kenny Easley, fs, 12; Billy Don Jackson, lt, 10; Glenn Windom, olb, 9; Chris Elias, olb, 6; Brad Plemmons, olb, 3; Arthur Akers, ilb, 3; Raymond Robinson, ng, 2; Mark Tuinei, rt, 1; Scott Stauch, ss, 1. There have been several changes, two of which were noteworthy during Spring Practice – defensive left Tackle Billy Don Jackson to inside linebacker and Anthony Edgar from right cornerback to tailback. Isaac Gordon went from outside linebacker to defensive right tackle, Ricky Coffman from flanker to free safety, Scott Stauch from strong safety to outside linebacker. Others are virtual side-to-side switches, such as the moves of Luis Sharpe, now a right tackle; Mark Tuinei, defensive left tackle; Dave Gomer, strong safety; Brian Baggott, right corner; and Jimmy Turner, left corner. Turner, however, is doubtful following knee surgery in May. Spring Practice indications were for good offensive efforts in 1979 from Quarterback Rick Bashore, whose talents appear more compatible with the new Bruin I-Formation, and Tailback Freeman McNeil, who netted 408 yards on 81 carries for a 5-yard average behind Starter James Owens in '78. Bashore had a disappointing '78 season after becoming only the second UCLA sophomore ever to net over 1000 yards in total passing in the 1977 season. Other offensive plusses appear to be in the line, with left Guard Larry Lee and right Guard Jim Main along with Boyd at center and Wollard (behind Lee). Brant, who made nine rather acrobatic catches for 135 yards last Fall, may be ready for a big year, but he anticipates stiff competition from improving Letterman Willie Curran. Lee is the only 1978 offensive returnee to earn as much as All-Coast honorable mention. Defensively, free Safety Kenny Easley is the focus of the spotlight after winning consensus All-America honors as a sophomore. He was in on 98 tackles (61 solo), created 4 fumbles and intercepted no less than 7 passes. But new junior inside linebacker Billy Don Jackson may also have his eyes on stardom after earning All-Coast second team honors; and outside linebacker Glenn Windom, who started 9 games before a knee operation stopped him, could give UCLA strength, along with Chris Elias, and Brad Plemmons. Peter Boermeester, the place-kicking specialist who earned All-Coast and All-Pac-10 for his 75 points on 30 of 31 PAT's and 15 of 21 field goals, also is expected to contribute in a big way.

LOSSES — 23 lettermen, including: Offense – 2 split ends, 2 tackles, 1 center, 1 tight end, 1 quarterback, 3 running backs. Defense – 1 tackle, 3 nose guards, 2 inside linebackers, 1 outside linebacker, 2 cornerbacks, 4 safetymen. Starters included: Offense – Max Montoya, lt, 12 games; James Owens, lh, 12; Theotis Brown, rh, 12; Severn Reece, se, 11; Kent Brisbin, te; 11; Scott Reid, c, 8; Bruce Davis, rt, 7; Steve Bukich, qb, 1. Defense – Manu Tuiasosopo, ng (2 at tackle), 12; Johnny Lynn, lc, 12; Bobby Hosea, rc, 12; Jerry Robinson, ilb, 11; Don Hopwood, rt, 11; Michael Molina, ss, 11; Jeff Muro, ilb, 10; Kenny Walker, olb, 6. The list of honors won by this group is one of the most illustrious in UCLA history. Robinson wound up his career as a three-time consensus All-American, first time in the U.S. in 29 years. His efforts in compiling a record of 480 career tackles, plus his three career interception touchdowns earned him virtually every honor nationally that a linebacker can collect. Theotis Brown, who became the second most-productive ball-carrier in Bruin history, is the only UCLA player ever to rush for more than 200 yards in a single game (220 against Washington in 1976 and 274 against Oregon in '78). For his multitude of exploits he earned 3rd team All-American and first team All-Coast and All-Conference honors. Nose Guard Manu Tuiasosopo, a tower of strength during his career, also gained second team All-America and first All-Coast and All-Conference acclaim. Max Montoya won second team All-Coast and All-Pac-10 at left tackle while Olympic Hurdler James Owens established himself as the No. 4 all-time Bruin rusher and won All-Coast honorable mention. But a mere listing of honors and statistics does not give a true picture of the quality performances and efforts of the above players, and those like tight End Kent Brisbin, Cornerbacks Johnny Lynn and Bobby Hosea, plus strong Safety Michael Molina. And how can you leave out others like split End Severn Reece; Robinson's linebacking running-mate, Jeff Muro; Center Scott Reid, four-time tackle Letterman Bruce Davis; defensive Tackle Don Hopwood, the quarterback sack man (8); outside linebacker Ken Walker; and the patience and dedication of Quarterback Steve Bukich and his Fiesta Bowl performance. These and other performers and performances are now part of UCLA's colorful football history.

PROMISING SOPHOMORES — Pointing up the extreme youth and inexperience of the '79 Bruins are these mere numbers – 19 sophomores and 20 freshman redshirts returning. Among these, no less than five sophs are pencilled in as offensive starters and four as defensive starters, plus a total of eight listed in the second slot offensive and defensively, going into the Fall practice. Two speedsters, Dokie Williams and Michael Brant, a junior, are spotted at split end and flanker, respectively. But they will have to fight off much-improved Willie Curran, who had an excellent Spring. Tim Wrightman, 6-3 and 233, started one game and wound up the season with seven catches; he looks solid at tight end going into the season. Luis Sharpe, 6-6 and 250, earned a letter, and has moved into the right tackle slot, while Toa Saipale, also a letterman, carried the ball four times for 30 yards last year, but looked good enough to be a probable starter going into 1979. On defense, starters currently listed are soph lettermen Joe Gary, drt; Raymond Robinson, ng; Mark Tuinei, dlt; and Jimmy Turner, lc, although the latter may be doubtful because of knee surgery in the Spring. And definitely in the thick of the battle for top spots are sophomores Ricky Coffman, fs; Isaac Gordon, drt; Rick Senteno, ilb, plus Norm Johnson, long-distance kickoff specialist and back-up place kicker and punter. All are one-year lettermen. In addition, freshman redshirts definitely in contention are nose Guard Mark Ferguson, listed behind Robinson, Fullback Darryl Green and Quarterback Bernard Quarles, the latter possibly one of the most promising of the youngsters. David Brown, ss, and Jojo Townsell, fl, are also pencilled in for No. 2 spots but several others in this group are definitely in the running, even for starting roles.

MID-YEAR TRANSFERS — These include junior college Transfers Randy Dickerson, dlt, 250, 6-5½, El Camino College; Steve Gee, qb, 169, 5-9½, San Diego City College; Dan Lei, fb, 220, 6-2, San Francisco City College; Avon Riley, ilb, 210, 6-3, College of the Canyons; and Gary Talanoa, ng, 270, 6-5, El Camino College. All have good opportunities for contributing roles this Fall. One other transfer was Cormac Carney, wr, 185, 6-1, from the U.S. Air Force Academy. Last season he caught 57 passes for 870 yards and eight touchdowns and finished sixth nationally in all-purpose running with a 157.7-yard average per game. He was a minus 9 rushing, 870 receiving, 67 on punt returns and 807 on kickoff returns.

OFFENSE — Coach Terry Donahue has now completed the three-year transition from the Veer to the Multiple Offense and finally to the I-Formation, largely to make best use of the talents of Quarterback Rick Bashore and the other signal-callers, Bernard Quarles and Steve Gee. Bruin fans can anticipate considerably more passing to balance up the UCLA attack, which has gone largely with the ground game in recent seasons.

PASSING — The Bruins averaged only 12 pass attempts per game last year and were under double figures in half their games. Pass completions were only 5.6 per game. In addition, the Bruins produced only two scores through the air, compared with 24 by rushing. Last year, Bashore's aerial statistics were 129-62-9-811 yards compared with his 1977 figures of 149-74-9-1015 yards. His touchdown production last year was only two, compared with nine the year before. With, hopefully, better pass protection and without the responsibility of running the option attack, Bashore should be a much more effective performer in '79. Quarles, possessed of a strong arm, showed good improvement in Spring Practice. He passed for 3922 yards during his Jefferson High School career. Most of the currently-listed split receivers are not tall targets, but there is good speed; and the battle for starting roles will be fierce. Sophomore Tim Wrightman, 233, 6-3, makes this a good position alone. He caught 7 passes for 82 yards in '78 and is an excellent blocker. He'll also receive plenty of competition from James Forge, 226, 6-3, and Ronnie DeBose, 228, 6-5½.

RUNNING — The halfback combination of Theotis Brown and James Owens (2106 yards and 13 touchdowns between them) is a tough act to follow. But that is what Tailbacks Freeman McNeil (408 yards and 2 touchdowns), Glenn Cannon (103 yards) and Anthony Edgar (right cornerback last year) will try to match. Edgar, 167, 5-10, impressed with his speed and aggressiveness in the Spring, but he has size and experience to overcome to unseat McNeil, 215, 5-11, and Cannon, 188, 5-10. At fullback, Toa Saipale, 217, 6-2, has carried only four times while Darryl Green, 199, 6-0; Jairo Penaranda, 202, 6-0 and Transfer Dan Lei, 225, 6-½, have yet to be tested under fire.

KICKING — This area is solid with return of Senior Peter Boermeester, 198, 5-11, and Sophomore Norm Johnson, 198, 6-2½. Boermeester set a record last year with 15 field goals (21 attempts) and also made 30 of 31 PATs, including his last 29 straight. Johnson handled all the kickoffs, consistently booting into the end zone to give opponents poor field position. The punting is solid with returning Starter Matt McFarland, 249, 6-2, who last year averaged 39.1 yards per kick on a UCLA record of 80 punts and won honors as offensive Player of the Game in the nationally televised UCLA-Washington game.

DEFENSE — Reorganizing a "clutch" defense that yielded its fewest points since 1969 (172) and lost seven talented graduating starters and a half-time starter is no easy task. The Bruin defense starts with consensus All-American free Safety Kenny Easley, who well could follow in the footsteps of Jerry Robinson as a three-time A-A. And the success of the move of Billy Don Jackson from left tackle to fill Robinson's inside linebacking shoes will help determine the team success. Additionally, the success of the comeback of outside Linebacker Glenn Windom, 225, 6-3, will be a determining factor, plus the play of Chris Elias, who started six games opposite Windom. The rest of the prospective starters, as of Spring Practice are largely short on experience, particularly in the secondary, where the return of left cornerback Jimmy Turner from Spring knee surgery would be most fortunate. The defensive line also figures to be a young area. Soph Raymond Robinson, 238, 6-2, who started twice at nose guard when Manu Tuiasosopo moved over to tackle, but he is the only experienced man at that position. Freshman Redshirt Mark Ferguson and JC Transfer Gary Talanoa back him up. Former right Tackle Mark Tuinei, 240, 6-4½, started one game in '78, but behind him Martin Moss is the only experience on the '79 left side. Junior College Transfer Randy Dickerson and freshman Redshirt Mike Barbee are backups going into the season. On the right side, Bruin coaches are looking at three quite inexperienced young men. Sophomore Joe Gary, 250, 6-5½, in his third season at UCLA, has had limited game time. Sophomore Isaac Gordon, 224, 6-5, earned praise last Fall at outside linebacker but is new to this position. Freshman redshirt Mike Jolly, 230, 6-4, is behind Gordon. Come-through performances are a must among these down linemen.

OFFENSIVE LINE — Center is one of the team's strong areas with two-time letterman Brent Boyd, 240, 6-4½, returning for his final year after missing 1978 with injury. Right with him will be Junior Dave Otey, 257, 6-3, who started the final four games after Scott Reid's injury. They will get excellent help from Junior Vic Mayer, 251, 6-3½, and frosh Redshirt Dan Dufour, 271, 6-4, who played at guard last season. On each side are starting Guards Larry Lee, 245, 6-2½, who started all 12 games last Fall, and Jim Main, 250, 6-3, who started 10. They're backed up by Lettermen Ron Wollard, 240, 6-3, from the 1977 team, and Ron Davis, 245, 6-2½, who started one game last year. At tackle one starter, Senior Curt Mohl, 250, 6-5, started five games before injury sidelined him last Fall. He sat out Spring Practice while Junior Gregg Christiansen, 260, 6-5, got in a lot of work, as did Mike Mason, on the left side. Their running mates, Soph Luis Sharpe, 250, 6-6, and Junior John Tautolo, 245, 6-3, will battle it out.

FALL ENROLLEES — Once again, UCLA has a fine group of high school seniors enrolling in the Fall. It's hard to predict how much influence the new freshmen will have on the Bruin depth chart, but there could be another Sharpe, Wrightman or Turner in this group. Of the 18, eight of the student-athletes earned some type of All-America honors. Those eight players include: Frank Bruno, fb, from Metuchen, N.J., Hi; Irv Eatman, rg, Meadowdale Hi, Dayton, Ohio; Donnie Fisher, rc, Lin-

THE GENERAL OUTLOOK — Coach Terry Donahue says, "We have an extremely inexperienced football team with a total of only 12 seniors on the entire squad. I'm sure this is the youngest team in Bruin history. However, they're a very enthusiastic and aggressive group and one which will show considerable progress from week to week. Our strengths? Our tailback position, offensive center, the depth at tight end and a returning senior quarterback. On defense, it's Kenny Easley at free safety. We also have a good kicking game and fair quickness. I'd say our main weaknesses are probably depth in the secondary and depth in the defensive line. We will have to have quite a few come-through performances in 1979, particularly against a schedule that has six bowl teams on it."

Two Bowls And 24 Victories . . .

TERRY DONAHUE

(UCLA '67)

. . . In Three Years As Head Coach

UCLA

In February of 1976, Terry Donahue became UCLA's 13th head football coach. Now beginning his fourth year at the Bruin helm, Donahue has already established himself as one of the school's winningest coaches.

In three years, Donahue has compiled a record of 24-9-2 for a winning percentage of .714. No Bruin coach has ever won more than 24 games in his first three years and only Donahue and Tommy Prothro won that many. His winning percentage is the third best in Bruin history behind Red Sanders and Dick Vermeil.

During his three years as the Bruin coach, UCLA has compiled a record of 17-5 in the tough Pacific-10 Conference. In each of his three seasons, Donahue has had his team in the Rose Bowl race entering the year's finale and no other team in the league can make the same claim.

Last year, the Bruins defeated the Washington Huskies for the third straight season, making Donahue the first Bruin coach since Sanders to hand the Huskies three straight losses. The Bruins also defeated Tennessee, 13-0, making Donahue the first Bruin coach ever to lead his team to victory in the state of Tennessee.

In addition, he has taken the Bruins to two post-season bowl games during his three year tenure, making him the first Bruin head man since Sanders to coach two bowl teams. In his first season (1976) the Bruins earned a trip to the Liberty Bowl and last year they participated in the Fiesta Bowl.

In that first year, Donahue led the Bruins to a 9-2-1 mark, making him the only Bruin coach ever to win nine games in his rookie season. The Bruins played 10 straight games before losing (9-0-1) and rose to No. 2 on both wire service polls. UCLA finished the season ranked second nationally in scoring and rushing offense and fourth in total offense.

In 1977, despite a number of key injuries, the Bruins finished the season with a 7-4 record, just missing a Rose Bowl berth. In the season finale, the Bruins rallied from 10-26 to take a 27-26 lead, only to lose the game on a field goal with just two seconds remaining in the game. This, despite the fact that Bruins were just 2-3 after five weeks. UCLA was the only Pacific-8 team to win five straight league games that season.

Last season, the Bruins had another solid campaign, finishing the year with an 8-3-1 record, good enough to earn a No. 12 ranking on one poll and a No. 14 listing on the other.

Some people were surprised when the young head coach (Donahue was just 31 when appointed in February of 1976) was selected, but athletic director J.D. Morgan never doubted Donahue could handle the job. He named Donahue as UCLA's 13th head coach just three days after the departure of Dick Vermeil to the Philadelphia Eagles.

From the moment he moved into the head coach's office, Donahue showed he has what it takes to be successful in the coaching field. A man who believes that discipline and hard work result in success, Donahue has passed this attitude along to his assistant coaches and players. The results are evident.

In his three seasons, Donahue has shown the ability to make adjustments when necessary. This year the Bruins will run the I formation on offense because he feels this is the best alignment for the talent he has to utilize. Last year the Bruins used a combination of formations after using the Veer in 1976 and 1977.

The Bruin head coach has also established himself as a fine recruiter. In their three full seasons together, Donahue and his coaches have recruited two freshman groups ranked among the top 10 nationally by one prep expert. The 1977 group was judged to be the nation's finest.

Donahue first became associated with UCLA in the mid-1960's, when he played for Tommy Prothro's first two UCLA squads (1965-66). From his defensive tackle position he helped lead the Bruins to their memorable 14-12 upset win over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

He started 21 straight games during 1965 and 1966 while the Bruins compiled records of 8-2-1 and 9-1 during those two years. Following graduation, Terry became one of the country's youngest major college assistants when, at the age of 23, he joined Pepper Rodgers' staff at the University of Kansas. At KU the young coach was in charge of the defensive line.

He stayed with Rodgers for four years at Kansas and then made the move back to his alma mater with Rodgers for the 1971 football season.

At UCLA, Donahue switched to the offensive line. He served in this capacity for three years under Rodgers (1971-73) and two years under Vermeil (1974-75). Among the Bruins Donahue has coached as either head man or assistant are center-guard Randy Cross, quarterback Jeff Dankworth and safeties Kenny Easley and Oscar Edwards—all first-team All-America players—and linebacker Jerry Robinson, the only three-time consensus All-America in UCLA history.

Terry is also the only man ever to play and coach in a Rose Bowl as a Bruin, having started in the 1966 game and coached in the 1976 contest. He would like to become the first man ever to participate as a player, assistant and head coach while a Bruin, hopefully this season.

Donahue's appointment as UCLA's 13th head coach marked only the third time that a UCLA player had been named head coach of his alma mater. The other two were Bert LaBrucherie and George Dickerson.

Born in Los Angeles on June 24, 1944, Terrence Michael Donahue began his athletic career at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks where he starred as a linebacker. After playing freshman ball at San Jose State, Donahue returned to the San Fernando Valley where he spent one year at Los Angeles Valley College but did not play football.

He then came to UCLA in 1964 as a "walk-on" football player. He didn't see action in his first season as a Bruin offensive lineman but with his move to the defensive line early in 1965, he earned a starting spot and held it for two years. At 6-0, 195 pounds he lacked size but more than made up for it with desire and hard work.

Donahue is married to the former Andrea Sogas, whom he met and married while coaching at Kansas. They are the proud parents of two daughters, Nicole Denise, 7, and Michele Lynn, 4. The Donahue family currently resides in Westlake Village.

THE COACHING STAFF

(In Alphabetical Order)

GARY BLACKNEY

(Connecticut '67)
Assistant Varsity Coach

In 1979, UCLA will have a young and, for the most part, inexperienced secondary. The job of helping this group mature belongs to Gary Blackney, now in his second year on the Bruin staff. He has the credentials to get the job done.

Blackney, 34, came to UCLA from the University of Wisconsin where he coached for three years, tutoring the Badger defensive backs. In 1977, Wisconsin ranked sixth in the nation in pass defense. In 1975, his first season at Wisconsin, the Badgers placed third in the country in this area.

In addition to his secondary chores, he served as the Wisconsin defensive coordinator in 1977. Last year, he coached free safety Kenny Easley to first team All-America honors.

Gary has a well-rounded background in the coaching profession. Prior to moving to Wisconsin, he spent two years (1973-74) at the University of Rhode Island, coaching the offensive backs, quarterbacks and receivers. In his first year, R.I. had its highest scoring offensive team in school history.

A 1967 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Blackney began his coaching career during the 1966 season by coaching the quarterbacks and offensive backs on his alma mater's freshman team. He held this job for four seasons before moving to Brown University. At Brown, he was in charge of the defensive backs during his three years (1970-72) and in his second season, Brown ranked fourth in the nation in pass defense.

While coaching the Connecticut freshmen, Gary also earned his Master of Science degree in Physical Education (June 1968). In addition, he is now 30 graduate hours beyond a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Connecticut and Rhode Island.

At Connecticut, Blackney earned two letters in football. He was a three-sport star at Plainview (N.Y.) High School, lettering in football, basketball and baseball (three each).

Gary and his wife, the former Lauretta Cross, have four children, Deborah, 12, David, 11, Kyle, 4, and Gary, Jr., 1. The Blackneys reside in Thousand Oaks.

BOB FIELD

(Arkansas '71)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Last season, his first at UCLA, Bob Field showed the ability to get the most out of his players. An outstanding addition to the fine Bruin staff, Field coaches the outside linebackers.

Prior to coming to UCLA, Field was a member of the Mississippi State University coaching staff. In 1977, in addition to his other duties, he served as the Bulldog assistant head coach.

In all, Field spent five seasons at Mississippi State coaching the defensive backs. He did double duty by also serving as defensive coordinator.

Field, 30, gained valuable experience during his collegiate playing career at Arkansas. He was a three-year (1968-70) letterman for Frank Broyles and became a regular in the defensive backfield midway through his sophomore season. In his three years on the varsity, the Razorbacks compiled a record of 28-5, including a Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia.

An outstanding high school athlete at Farwell (Tex.) High School, Field earned four letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

Bob assisted Broyles with Razorback Spring Practice in 1971 before joining the staff of Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama. He spent two seasons (1971-72) assisting in the coaching of the Crimson Tide secondary and Alabama won the Southeastern Conference championship both years.

Mississippi State was Field's next stop. During his five years he coached the secondary, was defensive coordinator and finally in 1977, was elevated to the position of assistant head coach. In 1974, he helped the Bulldogs to a Sun Bowl victory over North Carolina, 26-24.

Field is married to the former Judy Hurley and they have two sons, Kyle 6, and Brian, 4. The Fields now reside in Westlake Village.

RON HUDSON

(California '69)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Ron Hudson is one of three new coaches on the UCLA staff. A native of California, he will be working with the Bruin running backs this Fall.

Hudson joined the Bruin staff last December and was with the team at the Fiesta Bowl. He came to UCLA from the University of Oregon, where he spent two seasons as a key member of the Duck staff.

At Oregon, Ron had the dual role of running back coach and recruiting coordinator. Against the Bruins last year, the Ducks rushed for 225 yards in their 23-21 loss. He had taken over coaching the quarterbacks when he was hired by UCLA.

Born on Feb. 13, 1946 in Oakland, Calif., Hudson was an all-around star at Miramonte High, in Orinda, Calif., lettering in football, basketball, track and tennis. After a stint with the San Diego Marines, for whom he played football, Ron attended Diablo Valley College and lettered in football and basketball. He then transferred to California, where he played rugby and basketball. He is still an active rugby player.

Hudson began his coaching career at his alma mater, spending two years (1969-70) as a graduate assistant at Cal before assuming a similar position at Stanford in 1971. When Stanford assistant Mike White was named head coach at California, Hudson became a member of the staff.

Hudson spent five years at Berkeley, serving as both defensive line and receiver coach. He helped the Bears win a share of the 1975 Pacific-8 title while tutoring receiving standouts Steve Rivera and Wesley Walker. Ron has extensive knowledge of all facets of the passing game from his work at Stanford and Cal. He then joined Rich Brooks' staff at Oregon and served for two seasons (1977-78) before coming to UCLA.

(Gettysburg College '70)
Assistant Varsity Coach
and Defensive Coordinator

If someone needed to describe defensive coordinator Jed Hughes in one word, that word would be "successful." Whether he is designing a game plan, working with his inside linebackers or on the recruiting trail, he always seems to get the job done.

Now in his fourth season on the Bruin staff, the former Stanford and Michigan assistant is in his third year as defensive coordinator and his fourth as inside linebacker coach.

Hughes is also an excellent recruiter who has had a lot to do with the Bruins' out-of-state success the past three years.

He has now coached All-America linebackers in four straight seasons (Michigan's Calvin O'Neal in 1975 and UCLA's Jerry Robinson in 1976, 1977 and 1978). In his three seasons in Ann Arbor (1973-75) Michigan compiled a record of 28-3-3. In his three years at UCLA the Bruins have been 24-9-2, making teams Hughes has been associated with in the last six years 52-12-5.

He coached two seasons at Stanford (1971-72) during which the Cardinals posted a mark of 15-8, including a 1972 Rose Bowl victory over Michigan, 13-12.

A graduate of Gettysburg (Pa.) College in Biology and Physical Education in 1970, Hughes received his Masters Degree in Education from Stanford and his Ph.D. in Education Administration from Michigan in 1975. He was born Nov. 14, 1947 in New York City.

Hughes attended Newark (N.J.) Academy prior to going to Gettysburg College, competing in basketball, baseball, and football, captaining the latter two sports and winning All-New Jersey State baseball honors for three years. After graduation, he coached and taught at Biglerville (Pa.) High one year (1970).

The 31-year-old Hughes is married to the former Carol Reaver of Gettysburg, Pa.

MILT JACKSON

(Tulsa '67)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Milt Jackson, an assistant coach at the University of Oregon the past two years, is now in his first season as a UCLA assistant coach. He will be working with the offensive tackles and tight ends.

He has an extensive background in coaching, having spent time at Oregon State, Rice, California and Oregon before coming to UCLA. He started his career as an assistant coach at Grant High School in Sacramento, working with the football and basketball teams for two years (1970-71).

Milt then moved to the collegiate ranks, serving as a graduate assistant at Oregon State for two seasons (1972-73). In 1974 he moved to Rice and coached the running backs for one season.

Jackson returned to the Pacific-8 in 1975 when he joined the staff at California. He spent two seasons coaching the defensive ends and helped the Golden Bears win the Pac-8 co-championship in 1975. Jackson then moved north to Oregon, where he coached the secondary for former Bruin assistant Rich Brooks the past two years.

Born on October 16, 1943 in Groesbeck, Tex., Jackson starred as a defensive back and baseball pitcher at Tulsa University and was a No. 6 choice of the San Francisco 49'ers in 1967. Three years later, he began his coaching career. This season marks the fifth straight year that Jackson and Ron Hudson are on the same coaching staff.

Jackson attended Grant High School in Sacramento where he was a four-sport star (football, track, basketball and baseball).

DOUG KAY

(Western Illinois University '60)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Although this is just his third year at UCLA, Doug Kay already ranks third among Bruin assistants in seniority. He is in his second year of coaching the defensive linemen after working with the outside linebackers in 1977. Last year, he helped Manu Tuiasosopo earn second-team All-America honors and become a first round choice in the NFL draft last May.

Kay came to Westwood from San Jose State where he served as offensive coordinator of the PCAA champions in 1976. Prior to that he spent five years (1971-75) as head coach at Olivet (Mich.) College. At Olivet he compiled a record of 32-10-2.

The 43-year-old Kay, born in Evanston, Ill., was a three-sport star at Libertyville (Ill.) Hi. He earned a total of 12 letters in football, baseball and basketball. After a military stint Kay attended Western Illinois University, graduating in 1960. While at WIU he lettered four times in football and twice in baseball.

Upon graduation, he served as an assistant coach for one season at WIU (1960). The following year Kay became coach at Deerfield (Ill.) Hi. In six seasons (1961-1966) his teams compiled a record of 35-13-1, including three straight 8-0 seasons (1964-66).

Kay then moved to Terre Haute, Ind., where he spent four seasons (1967-70) as defensive coordinator at Indiana State University. From there it was on to Olivet.

DON RILEY

Assistant Varsity Coach

Fast becoming a fixture at UCLA, personable Don Riley is in his fourth year as a Bruin coach. He is the only member remaining from last season's offensive staff and will again be working with the offensive guards and centers.

This is Riley's 14th season as an assistant at the collegiate level. In addition, he put in nine years in the prep ranks, making 1979 his 23rd season of coaching.

Before coming to UCLA in 1976, Riley spent four years at Oklahoma State (1972-75) where he coached with former Bruin assistant Frank Gansz. Prior to that, he spent six years at Vanderbilt (1966-71).

Following graduation from East Tennessee State University in Johnson City in 1956, he coached first at Lynch, Ky., High, his alma mater, for three years (1956-58); one year (1959) at East Tennessee State; and then six years (1960-65) as head coach and athletic director at Greenville, Tenn., High. Incidentally, in nine years of prep coaching his teams won 70 percent of their games.

A fine athlete, he was an All-Kentucky State quarterback at Lynch High where he also lettered in baseball and basketball. He then went to Lamar (Colo.) Junior College where he starred at quarterback one year. He then transferred to East Tennessee State where he played QB for three years. He also played baseball there one year.

Born in Dungannon, Va., he is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children, Donna, 18, Karen, 15, and Roger, 12.

AL SANDAHL

(Louisiana College '63)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Al Sandahl is the newest Bruin assistant coach. He will be working with the quarterbacks and receivers.

Sandahl joined the Bruin staff near the end of Spring Practice, following the tragic death of Mike Mikolayunas. He was working at Vanderbilt University as offensive coordinator at the time, having accepted that position following the 1978 season.

He spent 1978 working at Washington State with All-America quarterback Jack Thompson, who set numerous Pacific-10 and NCAA records. Prior to that, he was a member of the Oklahoma State coaching staff for three seasons (1975-77), working with the running backs, including All-America Terry Miller. In '75, he worked with current UCLA assistant Don Riley and in '76, the Cowboys won the Tangerine Bowl.

Sandahl's first college job was as an assistant at Mississippi State, where he spent two years (1973-74) coaching the receivers. One member of that staff was current Bruin coach Bob Field.

Al's coaching career began in 1965 as an assistant at Jonesboro (LA) High. The next year, he served as assistant football coach and head track coach at Mansfield (LA) High before becoming head coach at Arcadia (LA) High in 1967. In 1969, he became head coach at DeRidder (LA) High and held that position through the 1972 season.

Born in Wetaskiwin, Alberta, Canada (he is now a U.S. citizen) on July 5, 1939, Sandahl won a total of 11 letters at Wetaskiwin High School, graduating in 1957. He played both tight end and defensive end at Louisiana College and graduated with a B.S. in Physical Education in 1963. He earned a Masters Degree in American history and European history from Stephen F. Austin University in 1969. He also spent two years in the Canadian Football League (Edmonton Eskimos in 1963 and Calgary Stampeders in 1964) following graduation from Louisiana College.

Al and his wife Sharon have four children—Todd, 13; Wendy, 12; Lindsey, 11; and Gregg, 9.

GARY CAMPBELL

Part-Time Assistant Coach

The 1979 season is Gary Campbell's fourth as a part-time assistant coach on the UCLA staff. The former Bruin running back will be working with the defense in 1979.

Campbell lettered three times as a UCLA running back and rushed for just under 900 yards during his career. As a sophomore in 1970 he was the team's No. 4 rusher with 355 yards and tied a school record by rushing for three touchdowns against Washington State. In 1971 he rushed for 234 yards to rank fourth and as a senior he averaged 5.1 yards per carry while rushing for 205 yards.

Campbell, who attended Ennis Hi in Ennis, Tex., joined the Bruin staff in 1976. In addition to his duties with the defense, he is also in charge of film exchange with other schools.

JIM ZECHES

(CS Northridge '73)
Part-Time Assistant Coach

Jim Zeches is in his second year as a part-time assistant coach on the UCLA Bruin staff. He will again be working with the defense in 1979.

Zeches came to UCLA from Hoover Hi, where he served two years as an assistant coach after spending three years on the staff at St. Bernard Hi, his alma mater. That was his first coaching job.

He played two years of varsity ball at St. Bernard, lettering as a tight end. He then played two years at Santa Monica City College before transferring to Cal State Northridge, where he played center for two seasons (1971-72). The following year, he began his coaching career.

Jim and his wife Kathy live in Glendale.

NORM ANDERSEN

(UCLA '76)
Volunteer Assistant Coach

Former UCLA receiving great Norm Andersen is in his second season on the Bruin staff and is serving as a volunteer coach. He will be working with the receivers in 1979.

Andersen lettered three times at UCLA (1973-74-75) and was a starter in each of those years. Twice (1973-74) he led the team in receiving and finished second as a senior despite a leg injury which caused him to miss a number of games. He also played in the 1976 Rose Bowl.

He caught 61 passes in his varsity career for 1051 yards and a 17.2 average. Andersen still ranks fourth on UCLA's career receiving list. Norm was an 11th round draft choice of the Chicago Bears following his collegiate career. He was an All-Pacific-8 first-team selection in 1974.

THE LAST TIME . . .

Scoring on a kickoff return, punt return, interception return or safety is rare in college football, as is a shutout. Here is a list of the last time UCLA:

Scored on kickoff return: Theotis Brown vs Stanford, 1978 (93 yards)

Was scored upon by kickoff return: Joe Steele of Washington, 1976 (89 yards)

Scored on punt return: Marvin Morris vs California, 1977 (26 yards with blocked punt); Ray Armstrong vs Syracuse, 1966 (62 yards with kick return)

Was scored upon by punt return: Mike Levenseller of Washington State, 1977 (32 yards)

Scored on an interception: Brian Baggott vs California, 1978 (62 yards)

Was scored upon by interception: Barry Krauss of Alabama, 1976 (44 yards)

Scored a safety: vs Oregon, 1976

Was scored upon by safety: by Oregon State, 1978

Shut out an opponent: vs California, 1978

Was shut out by opponent: by Michigan, 1971

UCLA ADDS TWO MORE NCAA TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS TO LIST

After two years (1976-77 and 1977-78) without winning an NCAA team championship, UCLA added two more titles, in tennis and volleyball, to its list last year (1978-79) to bring the Bruins' all-time total to 38.

Tennis has now won the NCAA team title 13 times (1950-52-53-54-56-60-61-65-70-71-75-76-79), the most of any school, one ahead of USC (12). Worth noting: NCAA team competition in tennis started in 1946 and in the past 34 years the Los Angeles schools have won 24 of 'em (the crosstown rivals tied for the title in 1976). Such domination in a major collegiate sport is simply amazing!

UCLA domination in volleyball has been equally amazing. Since it became an NCAA team sport in 1970, the Bruins have swept to the title seven times (1970-71-72-74-75-76-79) and were the runners-up once (1978 to Pepperdine). San Diego State (1973) and USC (1977) are the only other schools to win volleyball tiaras. Please note: Southern California schools have completely dominated NCAA volleyball, to date.

UCLA also has won coveted NCAA team titles in basketball 10 times (1964-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-75), twice as many as any other school (Kentucky is second with five), in track and field five times (1956-66-71-72-73), and in water polo three times (1969-71-72).

Besides championships in tennis and volleyball, last year saw the Bruins placing third in NCAA track and field, fifth in NCAA swimming and 13th in NCAA golf. Plus, the Bruin baseballers were finalists in the NCAA West Regionals and the Bruin basketballers qualified for NCAA tournament play for 13th straight year, a record.

Yes, 1978-79 was another outstanding athletic year for the UCLA Bruins, a year which started off with a most solid 8-3-1 record in football, including a 10-10 tie with Arkansas in the Fiesta Bowl.

UCLA's 61st YEAR OF FOOTBALL

This is UCLA's 61st year of playing intercollegiate football. During this span the Bruins have developed from an athletic nonentity to one of the country's foremost all-around athletic powers, a university which strives for and attains excellence in both academics and athletics. The Bruins go into this 1979 season with an all-time football record of 321 wins, 226 losses and 31 ties for a .582 winning percentage.

This is Terry Donahue's fourth season as UCLA's 13th football coach. The others were Fred Cozens (1919), Harry Trotter (1920–22), James Cline (1923–24), Bill Spaulding (1925–38), Babe Horell (1939–44), Bert LaBrucherie (1945–48), Red Sanders (1949–57), George Dickerson and Bill Barnes (1958), Bill Barnes (1959–64), Tommy Prothro (1965–70), Pepper Rodgers (1971–73) and Dick Vermeil (1974–75).

UCLA'S 21ST YEAR IN PAC-10

UCLA has been a member of the Pacific-10 Conference since it was organized July 1, 1959, and was originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The other founding members were California, Stanford, USC and Washington. Washington State became a member July 1, 1962. Oregon and Oregon State became members July 1, 1964 and the league was officially named the Pacific-8. On July 1, 1978, Arizona and Arizona State joined the conference and the league officially became the Pacific-10. Here is UCLA's grid record against traditional Pac-10 rivals since 1959:

NFL SELECTS FOUR BRUINS IN FIRST TWO ROUNDS

This past May, four members of the 1978 UCLA football squad were selected in the first two rounds of the National Football League draft. The Bruins were the only team in the country to have that many players picked in the first two rounds.

The first Bruin selected was nose guard Manu Tuiasosopo, going to the Seattle Seahawks as the 18th pick of the first round. Three-time All-America linebacker Jerry Robinson was the next Bruin picked when the Philadelphia Eagles made him the 21st pick of the day.

Leading off the second round, the San Francisco 49'ers selected running back James Owens. The fourth greatest career rusher in UCLA history, he was the 49'ers' first selection since they did not have a choice in the first round.

Theotis Brown, the school's second all-time career rusher, became the fourth Bruin selected in the first two rounds when the St. Louis Cardinals used their second round pick to make him a Cardinal. Brown was the 35th selection in the draft.

Other Bruins picked in the draft include cornerback Johnny Lynn (fourth by New York Jets), offensive tackle Max Montoya (seventh by Cincinnati) and offensive tackle Bruce Davis (11th by Oakland).

SIX NUMBERS RETIRED

In all of its football history, UCLA has seen fit to retire the uniform numbers of only six of its greatest players. The latest is linebacker Jerry Robinson, who wore No. 84 while earning consensus All-America honors three times, a school record.

The complete list includes: No. 13, Kenny Washington, halfback, 1937-39; No. 16, Gary Beban, quarterback, 1965-67; No. 34, Paul Cameron, tailback, 1951-53; No. 38, Burr Baldwin, offensive end, 1941-42 and 1946; No. 80, Donn Moomaw, linebacker, 1950-52; and No. 84, Jerry Robinson, linebacker, 1975-78.

Washington earned fame as UCLA's first All-America player while Beban is the only Bruin ever to win the coveted Heisman Trophy. Robinson is the only three-time All-America in UCLA history while Moomaw earned A-A honors twice and Cameron and Baldwin once each.

Beban is UCLA's all-time total offense leader and ranks second in career passing. Washington still ranks in the top 10 in rushing and total offense while Cameron is in the passing and total offense elite.

BRUINS CAN BOAST OF 34 FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Here is UCLA's list of 34 first team All-Americans down through the years, headed by quarterback Gary Beban who also won the coveted 1967 Heisman Trophy awarded annually to the "Outstanding Collegiate Football Player in the United States," and senior linebacker Jerry Robinson, the only three-time consensus All-American in UCLA history and the nation's first since SMU's Doak Walker in 1947-48-49.

The Bruins also can boast of two two-time All-Americans, center/linebacker Donn Moomaw in both 1950 and '52 and fullback Bob Davenport in 1954 and '55.

(UC Riverside '55)
UCLA Chancellor

UCLA's Chancellor Charles E. Young has completed his tenth year as chancellor and in spite of his youth (47) has been in office longer than any other U.C. chancellor except one. His successful tenure is being celebrated along with the university's Golden Year events, which extend through the fall quarter.

An energetic administrator, he has guided UCLA successfully through the difficult periods of student unrest and reduced budgets, providing vigorous leadership in the effort to add to the university's academic distinction through endowed chairs and other outside financial support.

Chancellor Young attended high school and junior college in his native San Bernardino before serving in the U.S. Air Force in the Korean War. Returning from Japan as a sergeant he reentered civilian life and married his childhood sweetheart Sue Daugherty. He and Mrs. Young are the parents of two children, Charles, Jr., now 24, and Elizabeth Susan, 18. To complete his college education, Dr. Young enrolled in the newly-opened U.C. Riverside and became its first student body president in 1955.

For his graduate work, he moved to UCLA, where he earned the M.A. (1957) and the Ph.D. (1960), both in political science.

After a year in Washington D.C., on a Congressional Fellowship, he returned to California in 1959 to join the staff of UC President Clark Kerr.

For about a year he served as staff assistant to the academic team drawing up the Master Plan for Higher Education in California, worked on the University Growth Plan, and studied decentralization of the University. He also taught political science on the Davis campus of the University in the spring of 1960.

In the fall of 1960, after Dr. Franklin Murphy had become UCLA chancellor, he chose as his assistant the young man-on-the-go. In 1962 Dr. Young took another step up the administrative ladder to become assistant chancellor, and in 1963 he became a vice chancellor, with responsibilities for administrative, budgetary and student problems.

In 1968, when Dr. Murphy resigned to become the chief executive officer of the Times Mirror Company, the Regents turned to Dr. Young to lead the campus which he had served with energy and perception.

Chancellor Young's interest in top performance extends beyond purely academic concerns to other fields, including athletics, and he has been quoted as saying, "excellence in the classroom and in the laboratory are compatible with excellence on the playing field and in the gymnasium."

Part of his interest in athletics arises from his own background as a high school football player. He still attends most UCLA football and basketball games and those track meets held in Drake stadium on the UCLA campus, and he can often be seen roaming the sidelines of the field, an enthusiast deeply involved in the fortunes of the team.

Director of Athletics

J. D. Morgan has now completed 16 years – July 1, 1963 through July 1, 1979 — as UCLA's director of athletics. It has been a remarkable period of achievement and growth for the Bruins, a period during which they've won an unprecedented 30 NCAA team championships and made four post-season bowl football appearances, two Rose Bowl victories over No. 1 rated Michigan State in 1966 and over No. 1 rated Ohio State in 1976, a Liberty Bowl loss to Alabama in 1976 and a Fiesta Bowl tie with Arkansas in 1978.

Incidentally, this is the most NCAA titles ever won by a university and an athletic director over such a span: 10 in basketball (1944-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-75); seven in volleyball (1970-71-72-74-75-76-79); six in tennis (1965-70-71-75-76-79); four in track and field (1966-71-72-73) and three in water polo (1969-71-72).

But UCLA's entire 18-sport program has been most successful under his astute guidance and leadership since he succeeded the late Wilbur Johns in 1963.

In addition, his tenure has been highlighted by the move of the Athletic Department into new and permanent quarters, the return of Bruin basketball to the campus in Pauley Pavilion, opening of a new boathouse for crew at Marina del Rey and the opening in 1969 of Drake Stadium, a beautiful track and field facility.

He has been at UCLA since 1946 employed in the positions of accountant, associate business manager, tennis coach and now athletic director.

Morgan's tennis coaching career, in which he turned out 16 straight winning seasons, was featured by no less than seven NCAA team championships (1952-53-54-56-60-61-65) and four national runner-up teams (1962-63-64-66). He coached eight NCAA singles or doubles champions, including Arthur Ashe, Ian Crookenden, Allen Fox, Larry Huebner, Ron Livingston, Larry Nagler, Charles Pasarell and Bob Perry. He retired from coaching following the 1966 season.

In 1966, J. D. was cited for "outstanding professional achievement in the field of athletics" at UCLA's Anniversary Day ceremonies. In 1973, he was honored by the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club as "Athletic Director of Distinction."

J.D. is highly respected, both nationally and in the Pacific-10 Conference, as a top athletic administrator. He is a member of the prestigious NCAA Executive Committee.

He's also on the National Football Hall of Fame's "Honors Court," as well as being a permanent member of the Rose Bowl Administrative Committee.

And he's now the senior member, from the standpoint of service, of the Pacific-10 Conference Council.

He was born in Newcastle, Okla., on March 3, 1919. He attended Cordell, Okla., High School where he was an outstanding four-sport athlete in football, basketball, baseball and tennis. Then, at UCLA he was a four-year letterman in tennis, serving as 1941 team captain and No. 1 player. A back injury kept him from playing football for the Bruins.

Morgan graduated from UCLA's School of Business Administration in 1941. During World War II he commanded a Navy torpedo boat.

He is married to the former Cynthia Gray Crane, who is active in University women's affairs. They have a son, Kevin and a daughter, Pamela.

tion of master's degree work in 1933. Studies leading to the Ph.D. soon followed, and in 1938 UCLA awarded its first doctorate. Today, about one-third of UCLA's enrollment consists of graduate or professional students, and UCLA stands ninth in the nation in the number of graduate students in state universities.

Over the years, UCLA developed a number of professional schools, also typical of major U.S. universities—engineering was established in 1941, medicine in 1947, law in 1949, and others in subsequent years. These schools, though young, have reached national prominence. One 1977 survey found the UCLA law school in 11th position, graduate education in 5th, and management in 8th; another in 1979 listed UCLA medicine in 5th place.

As the various branches of instruction expanded, the physical campus kept pace, and no year went by without one or more buildings under construction. Today, the four original structures in the middle of the 411-acre campus have grown to 115 permanent buildings, including such major projects as the UCLA Center for the Health Sciences, which includes the UCLA Hospital, and the 13,000-seat Pauley Pavilion, the home of nationally-famous Bruin basketball.

As UCLA approaches the end of its Golden Year celebration, its students, faculty, and alumni can take pride in the many achievements of the institution. An indication of the university's accomplishments in research is offered by the level of Federal support, including funds for research contracts and for fellowships, training grants, and other academic projects. In total Federal support for fiscal 1976, the last figures available, UCLA was fourth in the nation with $74,717,000.

Underlying UCLA's academic and research leadership are facilities which serve the scholar and researcher well. One of the best known facilities of the $380,000,000 campus is the teaching hospital, which was ranked seventh in the nation in a survey of physicians conducted by the AMA's Today's Health.

Another key facility is the university's library, with the largest research collection in the Southwest, something over 4,000,000 volumes and recently ranked 9th in the U.S. by the Association of Research Libraries. Also important as an available research tool is UCLA's Campus Computing Network, which employs an IBM 3033 and serves 6,000 users among faculty and students for both instruction and research.

In science, the university has such special facilities as a 100 kw. nuclear reactor, a linear accelerator, and laboratories for the study of plasma physics and dating of ancient objects by means of isotopes.

No less impressive are the facilities in the arts, which include the remarkable ethnic art collection of the Museum of Cultural History and the collection of 400 exotic musical instruments by the Department of Music.

A strong faculty, working in this unusual setting, helps to produce graduates who represent the sophisticated manpower needed by California. UCLA students, admitted under high entrance requirements, have demonstrated unusual accomplishments in the classroom as well as on the athletic field.

Golden Year events include observances of nearly every phase of UCLA's excellence. On Sept. 5, the Sportsmen of the South will have their Kickoff Dinner marking the 50th anniversary of the first UCLA Pacific Coast Conference victory; on Sept. 9, UCLA Extension will have an afternoon Golden Celebration of Learning, a free open house devoted to its programs; and on Sept. 16 there will be a major dinner honoring the Chancellor and the individuals for whom buildings have been named.

Three final events scheduled are a Gala Anniversary Concert Sept. 28 in Royce Hall celebrating 50 years of performing arts, an Oct. 12 performance of the Los Angeles Philharmonic with Carlo Maria Giulini offering music on the program during its first season in Royce in 1936, and on Oct. 19, the Homecoming celebration in Westwood Village and on the campus.

(Harvard '55)
Faculty Athletic Representative

Now starting his fourth year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative, Prof. Douglas S. Hobbs has been a very busy man. He was president of the Council of the Pacific Eight in 1977-78 and just finished serving a year's term on the NCAA Division I Steering Committee, which initiates policy recommendations for action by the association's annual convention.

Working with faculty representatives of the other member schools, he helps to shape matters of athletic policy and to approve legislative action of the Pacific Ten Conference as well as to help determine the eligibility of student athletes.

His duties also include membership on the UCLA Athletic and Recreational Policies Commission, and he is UCLA's representative to two women's organizations, the West Coast Athletic Association (WCAA) and the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW).

An associate professor of political science with a specialty in American Constitutional law, Dr. Hobbs enjoys his work in athletics and is a longtime spectator at UCLA athletic events. He says, "Since joining the UCLA faculty in 1964, I've missed only one home football game." On that occasion, Gary Beban broke his leg during the struggle with Stanford, and Dr. Hobbs is resolved not to court such disasters by his absence. He also rarely misses a basketball game in Pauley Pavilion.

He competed in track and basketball at Great Neck, N.Y., High School and also, as he puts it, "Played without distinction on Harvard's freshman basketball team."

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Dr. Hobbs was educated at Harvard University, receiving his A.B., magna cum laude, in 1955 and his Ph.D. in 1966. He was a Robert Treat Paine Fellow there in 1958-59, a Graduate Fellow in 1959-60 and a Teaching Fellow in Government in 1959-62 and 1963-64. He has taught at UCLA since 1964.

He has won three teaching honors at UCLA, the 1968 and 1975 Pi Sigma Alpha Awards for Distinguished Teaching in Political Science, and the UCLA Alumni Association's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1969.

Professor Hobbs served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1955-58 and in 1962-63. He served as a Navigator on board a destroyer and later as Communications Officer and staff secretary on the Staff of Destroyer Squadron Eight. He left the Naval Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander in 1965.

Dr. Hobbs is married and he and his wife Jane live in Brentwood, a residential area a few miles from the Westwood campus.

THE BEAUTIFUL HOME OF UCLA's FOOTBALL BRUINS

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum

- One of the World's Premier Stadiums . . .
- Site of the 1932 Olympic Games . . .
- Capacity = 92,604
- Probable site of the 1984 Olympic Games

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum may be 56 years old, but it is continuously being improved. In fact, in the past 32 years, some $10 million improvements have been made to maintain the Coliseum's position among the super stadia of the world.

The 92,604 seating capacity includes 74,017 theater-type seats and only 18,587 remaining bench-type seats.

The Coliseum, built in 1923 and enlarged for the Olympic Games in 1932, is best known as the world's greatest football stadium, the home of not one, not two but three top teams, UCLA, USC and Los Angeles Rams. No other facility in the world has three such major grid tenants.

There are 90 entrances equipped with 74 turnstiles for easy access and exit of the facility. A modern press box sits high atop the south rim of the Coliseum. It has three levels serviced by a private elevator. The seating capacity is 216 on the first and second levels only.

A Coliseum Commission, with Los Angeles County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn currently serving as president, oversees the facility for the State of California, County of Los Angeles and City of Los Angeles. Jim Hardy is the general manager, assisted by Jerry Nielsen.
